Guidelines for Churches hosting PWMI Conferences.

The conferences can be held on a Saturday (preferred) or on a Weeknight. They would be in 2 parts, with a break in between for refreshments. The PWMI have branches all over England, but I am the only contact here in Scotland, who is an Accredited Speaker.

The meetings ideally would be set up in the following manner: 2 sessions; if on a Saturday, one in the afternoon and one in the early evening, with a break for refreshments. It is suggested that those who attend are encouraged to bring a sandwich for example, with the Church providing tea / coffee. This generally works well, and it saves the Host Church from financial outlay for provisions.

The idea is that the Host Church would extend invitations to other Churches in the area, I would be happy to assist in this exercise.

An offering would be uplifted in order to meet the cost of hosting the conference. The speaker will receive a contribution towards expenses .

Some-one from the host Church would lead the meetings, and would be in control of the proceedings.

The teaching would be based on A Pre-tribulation / Pre-millennial interpretation of Scripture. This the doctrinal stance of the PWMI.

A bookstall will be made available. Please note I gain no financial benefit from the sale of books. The PWMI also produces an excellent monthly magazine, with excellent teaching on prophetic matters.

I trust the above notes are helpful. If there are any other questions please do not hesitate to get in touch. The ultimate goal of these conferences is to bring Glory to the LORD JESUS and to encourage the believer to look up 'for their redemption draws near".

Every Blessing
